

GREAT HARVEST CHURCH PLANTING

HARVEST HAPPENINGS

Meet Our Church Planters

The New Church Development Team would like to introduce you to Dale and Penny Dinterman. The Dintermans have completed the assessment process for church planting and are now completing work on their vision and beginning fundraising for their church plant.

Dale attended Towson State University and the University of Tennessee majoring in biology and is a TRIM graduate. He was ordained as a Church of the Brethren Pastor in 2003. Dale is also a registered master plumber and his wife Penny is an RN. They have 8 children ranging in age from 34 to 6 with 5 of the children currently living at home.

Dale has sensed the call to church planting for many years starting his first house church in Maryland where he and his wife Penny lived for several years.

I would ask that you keep Dale, Penny and their family in your prayers as they move forward in the next steps of their journey to plant a new church in Illinois to the glory of God.

Planting and Watering what God is Growing

Goals of the Conference

- To cultivate support for church planting in the COB.
- To renew and energize through inspiring worship.
- To develop tools and skills.
- To hear testimonies and celebrate God's work.

Plant Generously, Reap Bountifully

A church planting training event sponsored by the New Church Development Advisory committee, in cooperation with the Church of the Brethren General Board, the Brethren Academy for Ministerial Leadership, and hosted by Bethany Theological Seminary has been planned to take place in May of 2008.

Leadership for the event will be provided by Tom Nebel, Director of Church Multiplication and Leadership Teams Worldwide for the Baptist General Conference, Gary Rohrmayer, National Director of TeAmerica (the church planting ministry of the Baptist General Conference), Stan Noffsinger, General Secretary for the Church of the Brethren and Dan Ulrich, Associate Professor of New Testament Studies.

The Registration fee is $149 per person and includes the conference, lodging and meals. Two or more persons from the same congregation are eligible for a group rate of $129 per person.
